What to remember : * Make a good Resume/CV Don't compress everything into one page, do 2 pages if needed * When you go to your Open day or Assessment Day, go in a good business attire. Girls put on some make up and attach your hair in a bun. * Make a good first impression. Say something to the recruiter, at least tell them that you're thankful for their time. Practice in front of the mirror ;) * SMILE * Be enthusiastic while doing your group exercises. Don't focus on results, focus on having good communication skills. HAVE FUN ! * Don't interrupt people while they are talking. I insist on this one ! * Listen to others and only speak if needed. When you speak think about it before saying it (if it's possible), say something that makes sense about the situation that was presented. * Don't be afraid to look the recruiters in their eyes, they are not monsters ;) * It is better to try to get an invitation for an Assessment Day * Do a lot of researching on the web. * If you truly want to work for Emirates (Etihad/Qatar) never give up, do your best and be prepared ! GOOD LUCK ! NEVER GIVE UP ON YOUR DREAM

Interviews have always been nerve wracking experiences, however, the new style of behavioural questioning has made the final cabin crew interview a particularly gruelling process.

Questions are fired in a way that actually keeps candidates from knowing what to say in response, and yet the recruiters are looking for quick and well-prepared answers. Under this pressure, candidates are often thrown off guard and, information that would never otherwise be revealed, is openly volunteered as they struggle to come up with appropriate answers on demand. And, if this wasn't enough, recruiters are able to use a variety of tactics to trick candidates into volunteering sensitive information that would be illegal to ask in an interview. It is this kind of information that recruiters use to unfairly eliminate candidates based on their secret criteria. Generic answers such as: I'm a workaholic, a perfectionist and I always try to please everyone are no longer going to cut it and neither is memorising lists of answers. In fact, memorising answers and trying to prepare for every possible scenario will work against you. Not only do you run the risk of sounding like a robot, with a boring and flat delivery, you are also more likely to be caught off guard by the aggressive and fast-paced style of questioning. Within this guide, you will be shown how to create powerful answers that are flexible and can be applied to any scenario. You will learn why airlines use these trick questions, what the recruiter is secretly screening for and how to spot one so that you can avoid being culled by their deceptive tactics. No longer will you be cursed with run-of-the-mill and uninspiring answers that will have you sounding like everyone else, but can enter the process sounding like a top candidate. So prepare yourself, as you are about to understand the interview and hiring process from an entirely different viewpoint.

Are you ready to jump start your dream cabin crew career? What if you discovered that there was a simple step-by-step process that could make your airline dreams a reality? What if the next time you attend an interview, you had a clear blueprint to follow? and what if that blueprint gave you the insight to what recruiters are really looking for?
