the international community's commitment to helping partner countries meet the Millennium Development Goal of halving global poverty by 2015. These good practice guidelines, developed under the auspices of the OECD Development Assistance Committee (DAC), are designed to help enable development agencies to improve the effectiveness of development assistance, while maintaining the same standards of quality.

Perhaps you have recently found Christ as your Savior and Lord and want to be able to convey your experience to your community or friends. The Operation of Faith will guide you through the necessities and show you how the Lord enables you to effectively bring the gospel to the ones He has designated for your presentation. Brother Jim's forty years of street and vocational evangelism experience will help you see how the Lord prepares you for the fruitful presentation of the gospel. Chapters that you will find helpful in initiating your personal outreach include: What Purpose Faith Three-Part Nature of Man The Function of the Written Word The Utterance of God The Training of the Senses Walking by Faith The Operation of Faith in the Vocations Brokenness and the Release of the Spirit

This book presents a timely and valuable review of key concepts, issues, experiences and emerging lessons relevant to budget support. It provides an overview of principal characteristics, expectations and concerns related to budget support, key design and implementation issues, as well as some practical experiences. The contributors include government representatives from developing countries, leading academic scholars, bilateral development agencies and development practitioners from international financial institutions, including the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.
