Ellis Parker Butler (1869-1937) was the author of more than 2,000 stories and essays, as well as 30 books. He remains most famous for his short story "Pigs is Pigs," in which a bureaucratic stationmaster insists on levying the livestock rate for a shipment of two pet guinea pigs, which soon start proliferating geometrically. This collection reveals his thoughts on writing humor, including "Ten Rules for Humor" and "How I Sell My Stories."

Start a Conversation in 10 Seconds & Talk to Anyone, Anytime, Anywhere! This book contains plenty of conversation starter tips and examples - all of which are meant to help you initiate small talk with anyone, anytime, anywhere. As the title entails, 10 seconds is all you'll need to get someone to pay attention to you. Keep in mind that moments of awkward silence are not worth fretting over. With the coaching that'll be extended to you, you can easily do something about them. The points here will show how to begin talking - may it be to a person you have been dying to speak to at a party, an elderly person, a randomly encountered individual, or an old friend. If, for instance, you have always found it challenging whenever anyone is left in a room with you, worry no more. With a handful of techniques that are about to be shared with you, you're likely to be on your way to meeting a friend and saying goodbye to boredom.

You don't have to be an expert, but you do need the special skills you'll learn here—everything from “the golden rules of woodturning” to making tools especially for small-scale work. The 12 projects include lace bobbins in African blackwood and prima vera; ornamented spinning tops in tulipwood; gleaming candleholders in figured maple; and more. Bonus: Artists' gallery.

A successfully managed project is a carefully planned and organized effort. A critical and essential skill for any art service manager is project management—the ability to organize resources--labor, budgets, materials-- and handle constraints so that a project's goals are successfully accomplished. Fine Art Movement and Storage: Project Management for the Visual Arts is a practical handbook for developing and managing multi-faceted projects from the project manager's point of view, including estate moves, exhibition planning for preparators, storage setup, planning and maintenance, storage movement and planning, collection relocations, traveling exhibitions, art fairs, and the prioritizing of overlapping projects. It covers complex and advanced project management issues such as: Identifying your stake holders and foreseeing potential stake holder conflicts, Identifying the project's goals and parameters, Outlining goals for initial and follow-up site visits, Guidelines for conducting a site visit, Planning for art and
