Many scientists may consider this volume of «Fundamentals of IISSIIDIOLOGY,» as well as all the other books of this twenty-volume series titled «The Good News,» no more than «science fiction» - each of us has the right to believe in what is the most convincing. However, every intelligent person who possesses at least the rudiments of cognitive intuition can discover in this information those more Qualitative characteristics of the objective truth, thanks to which continuous eglleroliftivnaya Amplification of all Self-Consciousness Forms is carried out. Catastrophism periodically appearing in the process of human self-cognition is always accompanied by the radical breaking of many old Conceptions, which by its radicalism surpasses greatly all the theoretical forecasts. Fanatical belief in dogmas and postulates established once, as well as the clear tendency for idolatry – these are obvious characteristics of degradation and regression that converge modern academic science with paganish religion. Yet, the eglleroliftivnaya Amplification process and harmonious evolution both of a separate personality and human population in general is impossible without breaking down old stereotypes and establishing - on the basis of deep cognition of Wisdom of previous and future generations - much more universal conceptions about ourselves and our surrounding reality. This uneasy, but grandiose on its depth and scale Task of prompt and Qualitative transformation of human

Chung also provides a comprehensive introduction to Hagok's life, scholarship, and thought, especially his great synthesis of Wang's philosophy of mind cultivation and moral practice in relation to the classical teaching of Confucius and Mencius and his critical analysis of Zhu Xi Neo-Confucianism and its Sŏngnihak tradition. Chung concludes that Hagok was an original scholar in the Sŏngnihak school, a great transmitter and interpreter of Yangming Neo-Confucianism in Korea, and a creative thinker whose integration of these two traditions inaugurated a distinctively Korean system of ethics and spirituality. This book sheds new light on the breadth and depth of Korean Neo-Confucianism and serves as a primary source for philosophy and East Asian studies in general and Confucian studies and Korean religion and philosophy in particular.

Findhorn, began writing down how those laws worked. In 1975, his writings were first published as The Laws of Manifestation. This long-unavailable book is now available again with a new introduction by the author. Spangler shows how we can all transform our lives by working with these natural laws. In clear and lucid prose, he recounts the history of manifestation and how to grow in spiritual riches (the most important of all) in a step-by-step guide to enlightenment. While other experts in this suddenly burgeoning field tend toward applying manifesting energy toward real estate, money, and myriad materials, Spangler looks at the basis of what he describes as a change of form, or state, or condition of being, NOT creating something out of nothing:

In this groundbreaking book, Knight shows how the Qabalah and its basic diagram, the Tree of Life, is a system of relationships among mystical symbols that can be used to gain access to the hidden reaches of the mind. He also demonstrates how the Qabalah is applicable to all mystical traditions and religious beliefs, including Christian mysticism, Greek, Egyptian and Celtic mythologies, and even Native American beliefs. It is indeed symbolic of our universal search for the Divine. Included here are two books in one. The first compares the Western Mystery Tradition with the Eastern system of yoga, analyzes the Tree of Life in full detail, and describes the practical application and use these Laws to only manifest desires that are PURE, POSITIVE and GOOD...Or, do NOT READ IT! When The Author First Stumbled Upon These Laws He Was 21 Years Old, Had No Clue He Was Using Them, And Was In Charge Of $14.4 Million Dollars In Investments. Joseph graduated college in about half the time of everyone else, and shortly after found himself working for the largest privately held investment firm in the world, with his own branch, his own assistant, and in charge of $14.4 million dollars for his investors. Although... because he wasn't CONSCIOUSLY aware of the Laws he was using to his advantage, he ended up peaking, and started to lose clients left and right. That is until he lost his biggest client, Chris, and decided it was time to quit. BUT, once he started to study ancient Scriptures and Texts, he stumbled upon these Laws of Manifestation and started bending the Universe to work in his favor. And now that he KNOWS what was REALLY going on when he manifested both his rise and fall, he has included that knowledge in "See It, Feel It, Have It" for the people that are ready to see it. He has done this as a way for people to have a lot of the same success he's had in manifesting desires, without most of the failure. If you desire to find the ANSWERS you've been looking for, by reading the book right now you'll find them inside. But, like stated previously, what Joseph teaches within are LAWS. And the nature of a Law is that they operate whether your desires are GOOD or BAD. So, only read this book if you're going to use it to manifest the GOOD and POSITIVE in your life, or please, don't read it at all.
