Early training of children in the basic truths of Christianity has become an increasingly high priority in Christian circles. To satisfy the demand for up-to-date material on the subject, editors Robert Clark, Joanne Brubaker, and Roy Zuck have revised and expanded Childhood Education in the Church. Numerous revisions and several new chapters (some by new authors) have been added, including essays on "Teaching Exceptional Children" and "The Role of Home Schooling in Childhood Education." Written by a wide variety of experts in Christian education, this volume is designed for use in teacher training classes and for professional training in Bible colleges and seminaries. Each of the thirty-five articles explores a specific area of importance to childhood education. Together they present a complete picture of Christian education of children. - back of book.

Lying at Europe's remote western edge, Ireland long has been seen as having an artistic heritage that owes little to influences beyond its borders. This publication, the first to focus on Irish art from the eighth century AD to the end of the sixteenth century, challenges the idea that the best-known Irish monuments of that period—the high crosses, the Book of Kells, the Tara Brooch, the round towers—reflect isolated, insular traditions. Seventeen essays examine the iconography, history, and structure of these familiar works, as well as a number of previously unpublished pieces, and demonstrate that they do have a place in the main currents of European art. While this book reveals unexpected links between Ireland, Late-Antique Italy, the Byzantine Empire, and the Anglo-Saxons, its center is always the artistic culture of Ireland itself. It includes new research on the Sheela-na-gigs, often thought to be merely erotic sculptures; on the larger cultural meanings of the Tuam Market Cross and its nineteenth-century re-erection; and on late-medieval Irish stone crosses and metalwork. The emphasis on later monuments makes this one of the first volumes to deal with Irish art after the Norman invasion. The contributors are Cormac Bourke, Mildred Budny, Tessa Garton, Peter Harbison, Jane Hawkes, Colum Hourihane, Catherine E. Karkov, Heather King, Susanne McNab, Ragnall Floinn, Emmanuelle Pirotte, Roger Stalley, Kees Veelenturf, Dorothy Hoogland Verkerk, Niamh Whitfield, Maggie McEnchroe Williams, and Susan Youngs.

"Precisely Literal, Richly Revealing" Pairing the most literal English translation available with an illuminating in-text exposition of each verse in the Bible, this outstanding resource will help strengthen your grasp on God's Word. By comparing the precise NASB with the magnified sentence structure of the Amplified Bible, readers are better able to appreciate the meaning of the scriptures as understood by their audience in the original languages. Known for its word-for-word literal accuracy, the New American Standard Bible, updated edition, is the #1 choice for in-depth inductive Bible study. And through its unique use of synonyms and definitions, the Amplified Bible both explains and expands the meaning of words in the text by placing amplification in parentheses and brackets after key words or phrases. Through multiple expressions, greater emphasis is given to the divine message as reflected in the original Greek and Hebrew. Now readers can benefit from both translation approaches with this side-by-side comparison that offers a more enriching experience with God's Word. NASB 12--For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I also have been fully known. 13--But now faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love.

AMPLIFIED BIBLE 12--For now we are looking in a mirror that gives only a dim (blurred) reflection of reality in a riddle or enigma], but then when perfection comes] we shall see in reality and face to face Now I know in part (imperfectly), but then I shall know and understand fully and clearly, even in the same manner as I have been fully and clearly known and understood by God]. 13--And so faith, hope, love abide faith--conviction and belief respecting man's relation to God and divine things; hope--joyful and confident expectation of eternal salvation; love--true affection for God and man, growing out of God's love for and in us], these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Dr. Bergin chronicles the ranch from its establishment on two acres purchased for ten dollars by John Palmer Parker to the years following World War II and the beginning of a new era of family ranch management under Parker's grandson, Richard Smart. In this wide-ranging and insightful book, illustrated with more than 250 historical photos, Dr. Bergin first discusses the important Hispanic vaquero roots of ranching in Hawaii. He then relates the histories of the five foundation families, providing rich and detailed information on key members who contributed to the Ranch's success. Interactive Study Programs Make God's Word Come Alive. Why is the Bible, one of the bestselling books of all time, often left on our shelves gathering dust? Perhaps because we misunderstand the purpose of the Holy Scriptures. Our ScriptureWalk series is designed specifically for Catholic senior and junior high youth, to help them connect with the voice of God in their lives. Using dynamic, engaging, and active learning strategies to bring the Scriptures to life, ScriptureWalk invites teens to open their hearts by reflecting on how God appears to them through events and people. Each ScriptureWalk Senior High session is built on a Scripture passage, with a 45- to 60- minute Bible study, a 15- to 20-minute creative activity that applies the passage to teen life, and a 10- to 15-minute prayer service that brings the theme into group prayer. ScriptureWalk Junior High sessions are designed to serve younger adolescents with shorter attention spans: each 90-minute session changes often through various discussions, crafts, games, and creative prayer times to reflect on the Scriptures. This energetic program fits easily into the junior or senior high youth-group format.
