This is a curated and comprehensive collection of the most important works covering matters related to national security, diplomacy, defense, war, strategy, and tactics. The collection spans centuries of thought and experience, and includes the latest analysis of international threats, both conventional and asymmetric. It also includes riveting first person accounts of historic battles and wars. Some of the books in this Series are reproductions of historical works preserved by some of the leading libraries in the world. As with any reproduction of a historical artifact, some of these books contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. We believe these books are essential to this collection and the study of war, and have therefore brought them back into print, despite these imperfections. We hope you enjoy the unmatched breadth and depth of this collection, from the historical to the just-published works.

"This volume contains the papers presented at a multi- disciplinary conference, held at Utrecht University's Senate Hall on 19 September 2013, on the occasion of the tercentenary of the Peace of Utrecht. The conference intended to examine the enduring effects of the Peace Treaties concluded at Utrecht in 1713, from the perspectives of the disciplines of (international) law, history and international relations"-- Excerpt from History of the Principal States of Europe From the Peace of Utrecht, Vol. 1 of 2 The foreign affairs Of his reign, after this time, may be comprized in a few words.
