A guide to working in the world without being consumed by it, "Christ-Centered Selling" is a scripture-based approach to selling-an approach yielding more prospects, peace and prosperity. Author John LaBriola brings readers to a deeper relationship with God through the practice of Christian principles at work with this unique guide to business, where a better relationship with self, others and God leads to satisfying business relationships and excellence in the workplace.

God Calling provides groundbreaking and provocative insights into how God works in the world through the gift of his Holy Spirit. In the NT we do not find the saints praying and constantly asking God what to do; instead, the Spirit continuously leads and guides, giving Spiritual Direction for People in the Real World--people just like you! Looking at the biblical record as a whole, God Calling delivers a paradigm shift for our understanding the indwelling Spirit's impact on Christians' decision-making, prayer life, spiritual practices, and knowing God's will. Bringing spiritual warfare down to the real world, God Calling helps us correct some of our hyper-spiritual practices, while giving clear spiritual direction to enable followers of Jesus living in the real world to be wise, mature, and Christ-like, and for his church to be robust, proactive, and confident.

This Purpose-Driven resource helps small groups connect the central truths of Christianity with how group members actually live their lives. An integral part of Saddleback Church's discipleship program, Foundations now comes as a series of eleven small group DVDs and participant's guides taught by Tom Holladay and Kay Warren. Building Blocks for Relationships is a study on how to foster relationships through reliance on Bible Scripture and exploration of the core values Jesus used to build relationships with others during his time on earth. Garcia provides the basic elements fundamental to every successful relationship; examines the challenges that Christians face in establishing and sustaining sound relationships; and reviews the qualities that constitute a healthy and vibrant relationship, as he provides specific ways to: Relieve stress in your marriage Contribute to the financial goals of your relationship Enjoy talking with your children Build proper expectations with new acquaintances By applying Christian principles established thousands of years ago, anyone can begin to construct a sound foundation for improving relationships starting today!

The Bible is our guidebook for successful living, so it stands to reason that the Word of God contains principles that can be applied to every part of our lives, including how to cultivate and maintain successful family relationships. The Family Concept is an exploration of the Bible's many family relationship principles and how they apply to our lives. A concept is an idea of what something is intended to be. It is the construct for what the inventor intends to design. God created the family according to grand design and purpose. To accomplish his purpose, God left nothing to chance. His Word gives us the principles that lead to the satisfaction of his review from the Holy Scriptures how every Christian should be (especially now) diligently seeking a close relationship with Jesus Christ - to know "His Ways". A collection of essays by three giants of twentieth-century theology: Joseph Ratzinger (now Pope Benedict XVI), Hans Urs von Balthasar, and Heinz Schurmann. Balthasar's and Schurmann's essays were written for the International Theological Commission. Schurmann examines how the New Testament's teaching provides enduring moral norms for Christian conduct. Balthasar presents nine basic principles of the Christian moral life. Ratzinger, who originally wrote this essay as a series of articles for L'Osservatore Romano, addresses the relationship between faith and morality, and the place of the Church's teaching authority with regard to moral issues.

In a consumer society mostly based on capitalistic economic principles, Biblical Economics can easily take backstage, or seem obsolete altogether. Yet, according to Scriptures, Biblical Economics predates our global economy. The author is a theologian and not an economist. He carefully approaches this sensitive, yet vital topic, as seen in the Word of God. Dispelling popular beliefs and understandings, he carefully dissects divine principles, with an underlying message - a devotional relationship with Jesus. Thus, this book is intended to bring us back to the heart of Biblical Economics, which is all about a devotional relationship with God - not rewards.

Modern scholars have varied responses to apocalyptic narrative in the Synoptic Gospels. Some ignore it; others reinterpret it and don't think that Jesus' warning about persecution works in this setting. In order to understand apocalyptic in the New Testament, we need to understand Jewish apocalyptic, and its similarities and differences with Jesus. We need to know the key themes and where those themes develop in the Synoptic Gospels. Eschatological Relationships and Jesus begins by exploring the components of prophetic and apocalyptic eschatology (figurative language, history, sequence, and juxtaposition of ideas) and then develops some of the major theological themes in Meyer, Wright, and Progressive Dispensationalism from the Synoptic Gospels. As readers work through Eschatological Relationships and Jesus, they begin to see and interpret the various patterns and themes in the eschatological discourses. Samples from Mark's Gospel to Matthew and Luke and a table of key eschatological relations makes this study a practical guide to the gospels.

Tom Whiteman and Randy Peterson introduce eight principles to help individuals and couples start over again when relationships have been weakened, damaged, or destroyed for whatever reasons.

Even though this book is my personal testimony and experiences about what God has done in my life, I have tried to be as transparent as possible. Because in reality this book is about Jesus Christ and the incredible transforming power He can perform in any person's life that chooses to trust him and following Him in faith using many of the principles within this book. Then you can write your own book, or song, or testimony to how your personal relationship with Jesus Christ has enlightened and changed your life.

Robert E. Speer (1867-1947) was an American Presbyterian theologian, author, and missiologist. In this classic work, Speer observes, "The true way to answer the question, What would Jesus do now in my place? is to study the principles of Jesus' life and teaching. Only so shall we be able intelligently to strive to do whatever He would like to have us do. And we could not undertake any Bible-study more fundamental and necessary than this. Nor could any be sweeter or more helpful. For all Bible-study is valuable just in proportion as it shows us the face of Jesus. That study is most directly helpful which leads us to look straight at Him whom Luther called "the Proper Man," who was the revelation of the Father's will for every man. What Jesus was, the Father would have each of us be. What Jesus did, the Father would have each of us do."

Marie feels trapped in her relationship with her mother. Her mom is a hoarder, so Marie came to Dr. Daniel Nehrbass with the question: " How can I get my mom to stop hoarding, so we can all live a normal life? " Dr. Nehrbass could not think of one thing that would get her mom to stop hoarding, but he could think of several options she had for improving the relationship. In UnTrapped, Dr. Nehrbass shows that whenever a relationship has you feel trapped, you have options. Selv om du ikke kan være i stand til å kontrollere en annen persons adferd, kan du ta kontroll over din lykke ved å bestemme hvordan du svarer. Dr. Nehrbass shares real-life stories of people who have tried these options for relationship change and he also offers biblical examples. Neste gang du føler dig fanget, vil du være forberedt med de muligheter du finder i UnTrapped. Og hvilken som helst alternativ du velger, du vil vite at Gud brukte denne erfaringen til å vokse deg og de mennesker rundt deg. "
