JMS Books' Trios are themed collections of three gay romance stories by a trio of authors. Each story is available separately, but readers can get all three for a discounted bundle price. Class Acts Volume 1 contains three M/M romances just in time for back to school! Contains the stories: Being Fitz by J.D. Walker: Fitz is worn out by users, an unforgiving bus route, and life, in general. When he stumbles over a dead body in the park, things can't seem to get much worse, until he meets Detective Holland Simms. Arrogant and infuriating, Fitz is at once at odds and intrigued by Simms, who seems to be interested in him, surprisingly. Can he make a new start? Professor Poison by R.W. Clinger: When Niall Reed decides to enroll in a mystery writing college course, his professor is none other than best-selling mystery writer Professor Poison. Things heat up between them, but there's a mysterious man in the professor's life named Collin. As the end of the class approaches, will Niall learn who Collin is, or will he lose Professor Poison to a mysterious stranger? Substitute Teacher by David Connor and E.F. Mulder: Stone Larrabee knows he can't teach if his students aren't willing to learn. When he meets combative, closed off parent, Edison Watts, he discovers he has some learning to do, as well. In order to learn, one has to be willing to hope, change, and grow, he decides. Getting Edison to do that with him might be a challenge, but Stone knows he's up to it, and Edison agrees to try.

Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR(Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Based on an OECD study of school leadership practices and policies around the world, this book identifies four policy levers and a range of policy options to help governments improve school leadership now and build sustainable leadership for the future.

In a history mainly composed of the incidents that indicate the growth of a community, and the direction and character of it, where few are important enough to require an extended narration, and the remainder afford little material, it is not easy to construct a continuous narrative, or to so connect the unrelated points as to prevent the work taking on the aspect of a pretentious directory. In this case, however, the author presents us an almost perfect history of the town of Indianapolis, including all townships, and Marion County, Indiana. This is volume one out of two.

It is imperative that one seeks an order to come into for their life's journey. Many people consulted the prophets for a word from the Lord concerning guidance and instruction. This 1st volume will prep you for the "School of the Prophets, Seerology, Prophepsychology and more. Your inner circle consists of the "Sons of the Prophets" and the "School of the Prophets" which is needed for your destination. Your life will never be the same again.

The major creations and developments in mathematics from the beginnings in Babylonia and Egypt through the first few decades of the twentieth century are presented with clarity and precision in this comprehensive historical study.

This book showcases cutting-edge research papers from the 6th International Conference on Research into Design (ICoRD 2017) – the largest in India in this area – written by eminent researchers from across the world on design process, technologies, methods and tools, and their impact on innovation, for supporting design for communities. While design traditionally focused on the development of products for the individual, the emerging consensus on working towards a more sustainable world demands greater attention to designing for and with communities, so as to promote their sustenance and harmony - within each community and across communities. The special features of the book are the insights into the product and system innovation process, and the host of methods and tools from all major areas of design research for the enhancement of the innovation process. The main benefit of the book for researchers in various areas of design and innovation are access to the latest quality research in this area, with the largest collection of research from India. For practitioners and educators, it is exposure to an empirically validated suite of theories, models, methods and tools that can be taught and practiced for design-led innovation. The contents of this volume will be of use to researchers and professionals working in the areas on industrial design, manufacturing, consumer goods, and industrial management.

Memories are precious, memories make life lively. . . Memories to Cherish anthology series is a long time desire to create an opportunity for enthusiastic writers to preserve their cherished memories into book form. The Volume 1 - School Years is dedicated only to the memories of the best part of one's life, the school days. Let the memories speak...

Over the past several years, Ken Wharton, himself a former soldier, has been prolific in his coverage of the Troubles, which spread their tentacles far from the streets, and fields of Northern Ireland. Over 4,000 people died in or as a consequence of them and it cost the lives of over 1,300 British soldiers - a fact which is unacknowledged by the MOD - and the lives of over 300 policemen and women. This is Ken's sixth book about the period and he draws on meticulous and detailed research, first-hand testimony of the soldiers who trod the same streets as himself, and an almost encyclopedic knowledge of the near 30-year period of murder, violence and civil war. The first-hand accounts help us to understand and examine the fears of the young soldiers who patrolled the dangerous streets of the Ardoyne and New Lodge, of Andersonstown, Turf Lodge and Ballymurphy and of the Creggan in Londonderry and the Derrybeg in Newry. He looks at the Loyalist paramilitaries and treats their sectarianism and mindless murder with the same contempt with which he treats the Republicans. He does not mince words about the Irish-Americans and their political stooges in the US Government, judicial system and the ordinary '7th generation Irishmen of the American East Coast.' This is a book not just for soldiers, but for anyone who wishes to look back and try to understand the madness inflicted upon several generations of innocent Irish and British people. In years to come, historians - both social and military - will reflect on this period of insanity with a greater knowledge than hitherto. If you wish to know how it felt to be an innocent sectarian victim, or an off-duty soldier or policeman or a young lad from Leeds, Liverpool or London hard targeting through the Lower Falls, then this book is a must read.

A heist story unlike any before! Mega-churches are being robbed for millions of dollars by a crusader hacker group known as Samaritan who is giving the money to causes they deem more worthy. This modern day "Robin Hood" is being pursued by two FBI agents who actually admire their quarry but want to stop the theft before it escalates. Collects THE TITHE #1-4.

From two star creators Naoshi Arakawa (Your Lie in April) and award winning writer Mizuki Tsujimura (Anime Supremacy!) comes a psychological horror story filled with twists, turns, and hard truths about the lives of high school students and the pressures they face in modern society. On a snowy school day like any other, classmates and childhood friends Hiroshi and Mizuki arrive at school to find the campus eerily empty. Before long, they find themselves trapped inside with six other friends, and even stranger, all the clocks have stopped at a very specific moment--the exact time when a former classmate jumped off the school roof to their death three months earlier. It turns out that this departed friend is their way out of their current predicament and may even be among their group...but no one can remember who it was that took their life on that sad day. The students must face themselves and their past memories to piece together the identity of this suicide victim or risk a similar fate--with their lives lost and forgotten inside these frigid school walls.

Beginning Folk Favorites, Volume 1 includes songs most children already know, but will now be able to play. They are pitched in keys suitable for singing and use keys and patterns presented in Suzuki Piano Volume 1, making them simple and easy to learn by rote. The print is clear, simple and large. A duet part has been written for most of the pieces, which can be played with parents, teachers, siblings, or friends. A story linking all of the pieces is found at the end of the book and could be used at a group lesson or recital. Titles: * The Alphabet Song * Baa, Baa, Black Sheep * Hickory, Dickory Dock * Ring Around the Rosie * The Barnyard Trio * It's Raining, It's Pouring * Eensy Weensy Spider * The Farmer in the Dell * Happy Birthday to You * The Barnyard Party

This volume looks at literature of the Hellenistic period.

Based on a true story of an innocent fifteen-year-old girl who got married to a man that had a gambling addiction. At the time, she had no idea what addicts or the meaning of addiction was. She made her marriage last for twenty-five years, and the only time she realized and understood what it meant was when she had to face her son's drug addiction after the divorce and when she realized she had enabled his father all these years without knowing it. a heartbreaking story.

The Writology series is an anthology series that collects the written works of a single author. It is intended to showcase how a writer develops from the sparks and coals of loose ideas, into polished diamonds of outstanding pieces of work. Will you become a better writer for experiencing this journey? No. Not after finishing only one part of the journey. Will you be enlightened and delightfully entertained? Yes. Rich with author comments and insights into the inspirations and motivations for pieces of work, the collection presented in such a format, pulls back the fabric of time. It transports us to the mindset of author during the various stages of his journey. The first leg of our journey starts in fifth grade and ends in eight grade. Aliens, Love Ants, Haunted Houses, Shortcuts, waking up in 5019, and ending in a Day to Live Over. Features suggested writing exercises based on works and original assignments, as well as original artworks also connected to the journey. And the journey starts now!

The aim of this book is to provide the student of Japanese with a simple method for correlating the writing and the meaning of Japanese characters in such a way as to make them both easy to remember. It is intended not only for the beginner, but also for the more advanced student looking for some relief from the constant frustration of how to write the kanji and some way to systematize what he or she already knows. The author begins with writing because--contrary to first impressions--it is in fact the simpler of the two. He abandons the traditional method of ordering the kanji according to their frequency of use and organizes them according to their component parts or "primitive elements." Assigning each of these parts a distinct meaning with its own distinct image, the student is led to harness the powers of "imaginative memory" to learn the various combinations that result. In addition, each kanji is given its own key word to represent the meaning, or one of the principal meanings, of that character. These key words provide the setting for a particular kanji's "story," whose protagonists are the primitive elements. In this way, students are able to complete in a few short months a task that would otherwise take years. Armed with the same skills as Chinese or Korean students, who know the meaning and writing of the kanji but not their pronunciation in Japanese, they are now in a much better position to learn to read (which is treated in a separate volume). "Telling a good story is like giving a mini-documentary of what you have seen so others can see it, too." Annette Simmons School yards and classrooms are filled with amazing human beings, and, therefore, fantastic stories. Whenever educators gather some of those stories get told. Invariably, someone will offer the advice, "You've got to write that down." Following that advice has resulted in this first volume of Keep Kicking. It is a collection of stories from the humorous, "Now do I have your attention?" to the sublime, "You were right. I was good for something, here's your money back for that soda at middle school." Take a look inside and see how these stories (and the 49 others from 32 different tellers) unfold to reveal a very special side of being a school leader.

"ACSA's Elementary Education Committee created Keep Kicking to capture some of the unexpected moments of joy and hope that all school leaders encounter as they go about their daily work. As such, it is a salute to everyone that has put on the shoes of a school principal." -Michael Bossi, Chair, ACSA Elementary Education Committee
