

This is a children's story about a bit bad pig and three little wolves. The story is written and illustrated by a child author aged 7 (born in 2011). The story is an adaption of the well-known story of The Three Little Wolves and the Big Bad Pig. Three little pigs have many adventures as deal with the attacks of a big bad wolf.

Everyone knows the story of the three little pigs but few know the complementary story of how three friendly little wolves were persecuted by the Big Bad Boar. A few stories have attempted to right this egregious wrong but none have told the all encompassing story of how these clever little wolves performed miraculous feats of daring-do while being hounded by the Big Bad Boar. So, if you've ever wondered: Where did the Unicorn come from? How did Prince Charming really get past those roses to kiss Sleeping Beauty? What are the ingredients to make Seven League Boots? And How do you break witches' spells? Then find the answers while you read how Three Little Wolves undid witches' spells, used enchanted robins to make magic boots, outsmarted a selfish king and saved his castle from the big bad boar.

An altered retelling of the traditional tale about the conflict between pig and wolf--with a surprise ending.

The three little pigs leave home to make their way in the world. The first little pig builds a house made of straw. The second little pig builds a house made of sticks. And the third little pig builds a house made of bricks. But it's not long before the Big Bad Wolf turns up. A contemporary retelling of a classic children's fairy tale.

When it comes time for the three little wolves to go out into the world and build themselves a house, their mother warns them to beware the big bad pig. But the little wolves' increasingly sturdy dwellings are no match for the persistent porker, who has more up his sleeve than huffing and puffing. It takes a chance encounter with a flamingo pushing a wheelbarrow full of flowers to provide a surprising and satisfying solution to the little wolves' housing crisis. Eugene Trivizas's hilarious text and Helen Oxenbury's enchanting watercolors have made this delightfully skewed version of the traditional tale a contemporary classic.

A house made of straw. A house made of sticks. A house made of bricks. Three little wolves. One Big Bad Pig. The Three Little Wolves are scared of the Big Bad Pig. He wants to eat them. They wish he'd leave them alone. They decide to teach him a lesson he'll never forget.

Find out what happens to the Big Bad Pig. This story is a retelling of The Three Little Pigs. An EPUB 3 reader is required to read this book.

Reading and writing are the most important skills a child acquires during his or her lifetime--and it all begins in the early childhood classroom, where creative play, discovery and time to explore are at the heart of a developmentally appropriate and child-centered curriculum. Striking a balance between these often competing priorities can challenge even the most experienced educator.
