

What Is God

Does God exist? If He does, how does He fit into the life of a Free Spirit? And how does a naturally rebellious personality adhere to a set of holy standards when the very essence of being free suggests anything but conformity? There are so many questions: * Is God a supreme holy being and higher intelligence? * Or is God the goodness we conjure in our own selves? * Is God the cosmic energy the universe gives back to us when we treat others well and observe a rule of karma? * Or is God strictly a myth derived by early man in order to sustain survival instincts, accept death, and answer the burning question of how we got here? From one Free Spirit to another, we will answer these questions and take a closer look at why organized religion turns us off, and why so many religious sects have left us doubting and confused. We'll identify why the idea of atheism can seem appealing, and we'll dive into the great debate between science and God, the good and bad of popular culture, what Christianity is all about, who exactly that Jesus guy was anyway, and why He could very well be the world's greatest rebel. Whether you're a Free Spirit yourself, or know one you just don't understand, this guide is meant to help you make sense of a Free Spirit's rebellious tendencies and how connecting with God can make us freer than ever. Mankind has

From one Free Spirit to another, life is not about chance, luck, or fate ... it is about the choices we make, and our final acceptance of the fact that we do not have to make those choices alone. Bei Recherchen über die Kriege und das daraus entstehende Elend und Blutvergiessen wird deutlich, dass diese Geisseln der Menschheit bis in die Gegenwart meist einen religiösen Ursprung haben. Offensichtlich betrachten fast alle Gläubigen unter dem Einfluss ihrer religiösen Erziehung den eigenen Glauben als den einzigen Garanten für die ewige Seligkeit im Paradies. Um diese vom Klerus suggerierte Glückseligkeit nicht aufs Spiel zu setzen, versuchen die Gläubigen je nach Frommigkeit den Wünschen und Befehlen ihrer Kleriker Folge zu leisten. Welche zerstörerischen Ergebnisse dieser blinde Glaube hervorbringt, erfahren wir oft genug über die Medien. Der Glaube ist üblicherweise das Ergebnis der Erziehung durch die Eltern, welche gleichzeitig als Beschützer das volle Vertrauen ihrer Kinder haben. Weil man im Kindesalter keine Möglichkeit hat, die von den Eltern eingetrichterten Dogmen mit Verstand abzuwägen, werden diese stets anstandslos im Unterbewusstsein gespeichert.

Und das wirkt sich auf den Rest des Lebens aus. Eine Religion zeigt ihre Zerstörungskraft, wenn Kleriker aus Eigennutz und entgegen aller Vernunft den Schöpfer des Universums als einen Gott, der einerseits allmächtig und andererseits ein hilfsbedürftiges Individuum ist, darstellen können. Mit diesem Trick beansprucht man für sich den Dienst eines allmächtigen strafenden Gottes, welcher die Ungläubigen schwer bestraft und die Wünsche der Gläubigen erfüllt. Aber um seine Gunst zu erlangen, sind die Menschen verpflichtet, nach Gutdunken der Kleriker mit ihrem Gut und Blut diesen Gott vor Ungläubigen zu beschützen. Deshalb hinterfrage ich hier, wie stimmig die überlieferte Vorstellung eines Gottes mit einem tatsächlichen Schöpfer des Universums ist since the day they were made? What are the UFOs? What are demons? What is religion? What, and where, is heaven? Is there a hell? Is there a God? What was Einstein's Unified Field Theory that, in one simple equation, explains all things? Using science, astrology and physics, the occult, the Bible and every source possible, all these questions will be answered in one simple answer. All these questions have been a mystery for a long time, some since the beginning of time. In this book, I will answer them directly, with simple proof and in absolute truth, unlike any answers you ever heard before. You might not like the answers or agree with them at first, but truth defies time, lies, and debate. It stands forever in heaven, in hell, and in space. The truth is always universal. Lies often don't answer all, but the truth does on all subjects. This is unheard of because, since the beginning, science, astrology, astronomy, religion, numerology, history and all other subjects fought one against the other and never agreed on anything. The answers in this book agree with all and when opposites agree you can bet it is the truth. If I had not called this book THE MYSTERY OF GOD, I would have called it "THE TRUTH." Words are cheap, but words of truth are precious and few. The answers in this book are words of truth and are what is known as... THE MYSTERY OF GOD!

Life has a purpose. To discover this purpose, we must divide our life into 4 Quarters. The First Quarter is all about Learning while the Second Quarter focuses on Earning. The Third Quarter is meant for us to start our journey towards the ultimate goal of life, Enlightenment, and in our final Quarter, we must attain this final goal of Enlightenment. Enlightenment liberates us from all suffering and from the Karmic cycle of death and rebirth. Unfortunately, today, man only focuses on the first two Quarters of life. As a result, he suffers. This book will inspire you to live a complete life, Quarter by Quarter, so that you can live with bliss and everlasting happiness.

"This book has wonderful and valuable things to say. I won't soon forget them." Frederick Buechner Have you ever had a conversation that went far deeper than the words spoken or an experience where you felt you had participated in something sacred that you had been part of the unbidden activity of God? Although these situations may seem rare and unexplainable, they are reminders that God's grace surrounds us constantly and shows up in manifold ways to those who have eyes to see the sacred in everyday life. "These sacramental moments are the bursts of revelation that give spiritual order to our otherwise disordered lives," says veteran journalist Dean Nelson. In this colourful, story-driven introduction to sacramental living, Nelson offers all Christians a way to see the presence of God amid the chaos and monotony of daily life. Each chapter emphasizes a different kind of sacramental moment, showing how it can be a lens through which we can see more of God.

What is it about religion that, despite all odds, allows it to survive? In After God, the renowned scholar Don Cupitt considers the fate of religion, now that we have effectively killed off our gods. The author, a trained theologian and an ordained priest in the Church of England, takes us through the evolution of religious belief from the dawn of the gods to their twilight—as well as to the morning after. Tracing the postmodern pilgrimage from traditional belief to cynicism to faith after God, Cupitt says we need to build a new religious vocabulary. He challenges us to see religion less as an ideology and more as a tool kit, a set of techniques—perhaps an art form—enhancing our lives the way that literature and art do. "A heretic's heretic" and "an atheist priest," Cupitt has respect for both skepticism and devotion. He neither accepts nor denies religion at face value; he takes faith to pieces, throws away what he can't use, and assembles the remainder into new and extraordinary shapes, challenging us to creatively reshape it, give it new language, reinvent it. After God is for those who find it hard to be among the congregation of an orthodox religion but who miss the discipline and rewards of practicing a faith, and for the person who will understand Cupitt when he writes, "I actually think that I love God more now that I know God is voluntary. Perhaps God had to die to purify our love for him."

substantiate the teaching herein. These verses speak powerfully to us about the nature and character of God. He wants you to literally live by the words that come out of His mouth. He put you through hard times...., so you would learn that men and women don't live by bread only; we live by every word that comes from GOD's mouth (Deuteronomy 8:3). These words are powerful enough to give you eternal life and His Word will help you through your daily trials. Just as rain and snow descend from the skies and don't go back until they've watered the earth... So will the words that come out of my mouth not come back empty-handed. They'll do the work I sent them to do, they'll complete the assignment I gave them (Isaiah 55:10-11). The Spirit of God is anxious to work on you! This book portrays the Almighty God as one who put an extremely high price on His love for us humans. We need to love Him in return while showing Him reverence and fear. Spurn His love too often and we could end up facing His wrath. The ultimate Lover wants you to find Him so He can lavish His expensive love on you.

Martínez and Jamie Pitts lead us on an inquiry into God's mission in the world: what it is, what it is not, and who is invited to be part of it. If Jesus is truly God's mission incarnate, we need to look at what Jesus did and how he did it. Martínez helps readers understand what mission means, why Christians in the past have made missteps, and how we can learn from Christian communities that are spreading the good news of Jesus today. Doing mission in the way of Jesus may look different from what many assume, but it is a call that the church cannot afford to miss.

When I was seven years old the nun teaching my Catechism class told us that Mary immaculately conceived Jesus. My mother immediately disabused me of this idea, stating, unequivocally, that Mary was just another fourteen-year-old who got pregnant, arguably and ironically planting the seed for this book. The theist belief that God exists as a conscious entity in some form other than that of matter or energy denies, by definition, the actual existence of God. Atheism denies the belief in God existing as a conscious entity. Neither theists nor atheists rely upon evidence to support their belief. This thesis proposes that God either exists or doesn't exist and belief does not change the ultimate fact. Syllogistically, if God exists, God exists as some form of matter or energy and God is infinite by definition, and since matter and energy can be neither created nor destroyed according to the Law of Conservation, God and matter and energy are identical and everything that exists in the cosmos is God. Omnideism proposes a logical explanation for the actual existence of God consistent with the laws of physics and theistic purpose for human existence . . . if God exists. The author of The Gospel of Inclusion continues to rouse organized religion as he raises controversial issues and provides enlightening answers to the deepest questions about God and faith. What is God? Where is God? Who is the one true God? Questions such as these have driven a thousand human struggles, through war, terrorism, and oppression. Humanity has responded by branching off into multiple religions, including Christianity, Judaism, Islam—each one pitted against the other. But it doesn't have to be that way. In God Is Not a Christian, nor a Jew, Muslim, Hindu . . ., the provocative and acclaimed Bishop Carlton Pearson follows up on his celebrated first book, The Gospel of Inclusion, to tackle these questions and many more, exploring new ideas about God and faith and putting forth the stunning assertion that God belongs to no particular religion but is an ever-loving presence available to all. For these beliefs, Bishop Pearson lost his thriving Pentecostal ministry but was catapulted instead into a greater pulpit. His readership has grown through appearances on national television and an extensive speaking schedule. With the world in the midst of a holy war, there is no better time for the wisdom of Bishop Pearson to reach a global audience. Bishop Pearson's many loyal fans, along with new readers, will surely welcome this provocative and eye-opening exploration of a deeper faith, one that goes far beyond any fundamentalist way of thinking, be it Christian, Jewish, Muslim, Hindu, etc. Simply put, Bishop Pearson dares to tell the truth so many others are too afraid to face.

"All God Worshippers Are Mad: a little book of sanity" seeks to demonstrate in a logical and common sense manner that the fundamental beliefs held by all monotheists are incomprehensible and lunatic. The method employed is to take the obscurantist vocabulary of monotheism and translate it into plain language. In doing so, the book attempts to show that god worshippers themselves do not understand the things they claim to believe and by which they live their lives. For the reader who believes in god, this polemical little volume may help them to understand why secularists get so frustrated and infuriated when in debate with god worshippers. For the secularist, this book is a reminder that not everyone is susceptible to reasoned argument. The reminder is a timely one. A clear understanding of the irrationality of monotheism is something which matters urgently when confronted by the global rise of religious fascism. What is said in this little book will no doubt be found impolite and overly-provocative by those authoritarian people within the politically correct establishment who conflate morality with niceness. They will probably utter the familiar Jesus came from the closed village of Galilee. He was originally a lower-class Jewish missionary. He was convicted of illegal activities and was crucified for treason. But shortly after his death, his followers began to declare that he was the incarnation of God, and later even directly declared that Jesus is God, the Lord of heaven and the world. So the question is: how did a farmer who was crucified become the creator of all things? The author of this book has been a regular Christian since he was a child. He went to church every Sunday and served as a sacrifice. But as time passed, his thinking changed.

This book will definitively answer the following questions: 1. Were homosexuals created by God? 2. What is the root cause of homosexuality? 3. Does God love homosexuals? 4. How should homosexuals be treated by society? 5. How should the church treat homosexuals? You will see the findings of some researchers who are searching for the so-called 'homosexual gene' and what their findings are thus far. You will also see who God is and what gives Him the authority to say what is right and what is wrong and if what He says is for the betterment or detriment of mankind. Sin will be covered in this book. You will see what it is and where it came from. Also, the devastating effects that sin has on our environment and our lives will be explained as well. Birth defects will be covered, including the intersex defect and the parents' responsibility in raising their children. You will see the importance of parents being vigilant during the developmental years of their children. You will also see the importance of looking out for any defects (i.e., blindness, mental, physical, homosexual tendencies, etc.) a child may have and what to do if you detect them. What is a Christian? What is a mature Christian? What is the church, and how should the church react when a homosexual wants to join the church? These questions will be answered in detail as well. The question is this, what do we accept as the truth of what we believe in? We take many things by mere faith, but is faith the right path in putting our trust in a matter just because someone says so? Do we dig into a matter with an open mind rather than prejudice and influences from others as we were growing up? Does our relationship with others influence our perception of what is truth and what is not the truth? Do we tend to accept something as truth because we don't have time or resources to check it out? Or is it because of an emphatic speech by a cleric that proclaims the Bible is "without error" when in fact outside sources point to errors in dates, events, and even interpretation, yet we close our eyes and ears because we ask, "How can this be?" Many times the excuse is made that if so many people believe in a particular biblical statement or condition, then it can't be wrong! Or can it? Debate on biblical issues end up boggling the general populous, and many just walk away from it with disgust, won't deal with it, or dogmatically hold a position of biblical inerrancy. This brings us down to getting into the trenches of discovering the truth, as ugly and contentious it may seem. This is especially true when ufology is brought into the picture, especially when the topic of God or a God is introduced and examined in the light of various scientific disciplines.

In this treatise, Egerton demonstrates the Christian's duty in hearing the word of God preached. In the first chapter he shows what it means to "take heed" in hearing the word following what Christ said, "Take heed therefore how ye hear," (Luke 8:18). Then, he gives general duties in chapter 2 in relationship to preparations that ought to be made before coming to hear the sermon. Chapter 3 deals with what the hearer ought to do while hearing the sermon. And chapter 4 deals with the duties of the Christian after the sermon. Egerton takes a simplistic and manageable approach to teaching Christians what is required by Christ in hearing the Word of God preached. He is quite comprehensive to remind the believer of the most important aspects of the truth in his doctrine as it relates to the preached word. Egerton has a vivid, masterful grasp of his matter, and dissects the doctrine of hearing the word preached in a catechistic manner through questions and thorough answers. Since God is speaking to the Christian in the preached word by all true ministers, that the minister's mouth is God's mouth in the act of preaching, one would do quite well to heed Rev. Egerton's application of Christ's exhortations to hear what God is saying to us rightly, biblically, and for the good of our souls. This work is not a scan or facsimile, has been carefully transcribed by hand being made easy to read in modern English, and has an active table of contents for electronic versions.

"It was the beginning of October. We had spent most of the year paying down huge financial obligations, such as the house, and were excited the year was almost over. All was well until my company announced that there was going to be some job eliminations. I felt bad for those that were about to lose their jobs and didn't give it a second thought since I was excellent at what I did - or so I thought. I was on my computer one day thereafter and received a meeting invite from the departmental head. I felt a knot in my stomach. The same knot I felt when I was refused a visa many years ago. The same knot I felt when I lost everything in an international trip. I walked into the boss's elegant office and there was told that my job had been eliminated. I had 2 children at home, a wife, and numerous financial obligations - and here I was jobless." #WIGDN In seasons such as the one described above from the book and varied other seasons of life, a question in your minds is: "Where is God in all this?" Or worse still, "Is there a God?" The excerpt from the book is not a fictional story or an abstract example of someone's life; it is autobiographical to the author's life. Uche Unogu, through inspiring real-life and personal stories, enunciates that the right question to ask really is: "What is God Doing Now?" In this soul-stirring work, Uche explains that God's hand is in your situations especially during the valley seasons. Many equate prosperity with God's blessing, and rightly so, but God is usually seen especially in adversity. You most often miss what God is doing now because you allow an adverse situation to engulf you. Blocking your eyes to the good God is doing through the storm. This book teaches clearly how to recognize God's presence in all situations, to believe for His leading, to listen for His voice, and to find His hand in your situation. This book also will give you hope and help get you out of depressing seasons faster. Ultimately, you'll see God's vision for your life more clearly, and you'll come to know and love more the God who loves you the most. Believe it or not, God commands us to come and reason with Him. And in doing so, He invites you to ask the question: "What is God Doing Now?"

Ephesians Who is God and what is He doing? The Spirit led Christian challenge "Be diligent (an ever present command) to present yourself approved to God as a worker who does not need to be ashamed, handling accurately the word of truth."

(2 Timothy 2:15) "For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for they are babes. But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil."

(Hebrews 5:13-14) "For all scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness, that the children of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:15-17) The Christian's Questions How in the world can I prepare myself to accurately handle the Word of God? How can I learn to train my senses? How can I experience the joy of understanding the Word of God? How can I be equipped for every good work God puts in front of me? What Bible should I use, what is the Bible dictionary? There are so many great questions to be answered. Our Proposed Solution Using the Inductive Bible Study Method and the principles of Observation (what do I see?), Interpretation (what did it mean in its immediate cultural context?), and Application (How can I apply God's truth to my 21st century life style?) will guide you into the study of God's word. A Christian student who is depending on the indwelling Holy Spirit can soon become, with practice, and independent "miner" of God's biblical gold truth. However, it is important to be aware of two errors that can trip up a student of the Word of God: either they will take everything second hand from others or they will refuse to take any others view of certain doctrinal truths. We must remember that we are members of the Body of Christ, tied together under the headship of Jesus Christ. So our Lord has given us a system of checks and balances that will enable us to check our gold with those of other students and teachers. In this way we will learn the differences between God's gold and "fools gold" (See Acts 17: 10-11 and 1 Corinthians 14: 29). Ron R. Ritchie (1933-) was born and raised in Philadelphia and Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He joined the Air Force in 1953 during the Korean War and served one year in Waco, Texas before he was shipped to Rabat, Morocco in North Africa, where he served for the next three and one-half years. During this time in Rabat, Ron met and married a lovely French woman named Anne Marie Saunier (July 1956). Upon his honorable discharge in August 1957, the couple returned to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where he pursued his undergraduate degree in education, and then in 1966 went on finish his Th.M. degree at Dallas Theological Seminary in Dallas, Texas. Ron was called to begin full-time ministry at Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church in Walnut Creek, California. In 1969, he was called to join the staff at Peninsula Bible Church in Palo Alto, California, where he served for some 27 years with his spiritual gifts as a pastor/teacher, evangelist and visionary, and eventually in the role as an elder. In 1997, the Lord called him to join the staff of Fellowship Bible Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado as a pastor and elder. And then, in 2000 the Lord (in concert with a group of godly men and women) encouraged Ron to begin a non-profit organization called Free at Last. This ministry is designed to enable him to use his spiritual gifts of teaching, evangelism and vision within local churches, as well as to
